

CHINA HAS SUEED FOR PEACE

Proposals Placed in the Hands of United States Minister Denby.

TERMS OF THE PROPOSAL NOT YET KNOWN

Not Likely that the First Offer Will Be Accepted, but Will Likely Lead to an Ultimate Agreement—Immediate Peace Probable.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28.—China has succumbed to the inevitable and sued for peace. Her proposals will be presented to Japan through the United States ministers at Peking and Tokio, thus promising a termination of the war as the result, in part at least, of the exercise of the good offices of the United States. It is not possible at this time to learn the terms of China's proposition as handed to Minister Denby.

It is probable, however, that as the matter is in the hands of the American ministers in China and Japan, it will be decided by the commissioner of maritime customs at Peking, to Japan, to be directly connected with the peace negotiations, as has been supposed.

HIROSHIMA, Nov. 28.—Mr. Distiering, the chief inspector of the Chinese customs at Peking, who has arrived in Hiroshima, has been received by the Japanese authorities, who are supposed to be peace, but the peace envoy alone landed.
